

IT'S YOUR RIGHT

As a parent of a child with a developmental disability,

You and your child have the right to:

- ◆ Choose service providers
- ◆ Change service providers
- ◆ Receive services under a written service plan
- ◆ Lead the development of your child's plan of service and corresponding implementation plans.
- ◆ Be present during any/all services and medical appointments if you choose
- ◆ Determine the environment the services are delivered in accordance with rule and evidence based practice.
- ◆ Refuse any services if you do not feel they meet the needs of your child
- ◆ Be informed of your child's budget
- ◆ Be informed of your child's medical condition, needs based on the condition, of habilitative services available, and the cost of the service
- ◆ File a complaint regarding your DD services (Contact FACS Supervisor below)
- ◆ Reasonable access to all records concerning your child. Includes but not limited to, assessments, service/implementation plans, status reviews, plan monitoring reports.
- ◆ Receive a response from the Department or agency within a reasonable timeframe
- ◆ To appeal any decision made by the Department
- ◆ Review the results of the most recent experience survey pertaining to your child
- ◆ Humane care and treatment
- ◆ Be free from mental or physical abuse
- ◆ To be protected from harm
- ◆ Privacy/ Confidentiality
- ◆ Other rights established by law

Do you think you/your child's rights are being violated ?

Child Protection resources call : Idaho Care Line by dialing 2-1-1 or 1-800-926-2588

Disability Rights of Idaho: 1-866-262- 3462

Council on Developmental Disabilities 1-208-334-2178

Family and Community Services Program Supervisors

North Idaho: Pete Peterson 798-4117 Western Idaho: Sarah Allen 334-0970

Eastern Idaho: Karen Tharp 234-7945

Toll Free 1-855-334-5512